Fionraíocht/ Suspension

Leanfaidh an Bord Bainistíochta na Nósanna Imeachta fionraíochta de réir mar atá siad leagtha amach i gcaibidil 10 agus 11 ar Cód Iompair a Fhorbairt: Treoirilinte do Scoileanna. The Board of Management will follow the procedures for suspension as outlined in Chapters 10 & 11 of Developing a Code of Behaviour: Guidelines for Schools, NEWB, 2008.

Sainmhíniú Fionraíochta/ : ‘requiring the pupil to absent himself/herself from the school for a specified, limited period of school days, or part of a school day.

Nósanna Imeachta Féarálta/ Fair procedures (i.e. right to be heard and the right to impartiality) will be applied. Accordingly, pupils and their parents will be fully informed about the alleged misbehaviour and the processes that will be used to investigate and decide the matter; and they will be given an opportunity to respond to an allegation before a decision is made and before a serious sanction is imposed.

8.1 Údarás Fionnraí a chur i bhfeidhm/ Authority to suspend:

The Board of Management of Gaelscoil Phortlaoise has the authority to suspend a pupil. The Board of Management has formally and in writing delegated the authority to impose an ‘immediate suspension’ to the Principal where there is a serious threat to safety. Suspension will be a proportionate response to the behaviour that is causing concern. Normally, other interventions will have been tried before suspension, and school staff will have reviewed the reasons why these have not worked. The decision to suspend a pupil requires serious grounds such as that:

- the pupil's behaviour has had a seriously detrimental effect on the education of other pupils
- the pupil's continued presence in the school at this time constitutes a threat to safety
- the pupil is responsible for serious damage to property.
- A single incident of serious misconduct may be grounds for suspension.

Suspensions can provide a respite for staff and the pupil, give the pupil time to reflect on the link between their action and its consequences and give staff time to plan ways of helping the pupil to change unacceptable behaviour.

8.2 Cineálacha Fionraí/ Forms of suspension

Fionraí Láithreach/ Immediate suspension

In exceptional circumstances, the Principal may consider an immediate suspension to be necessary where the continued presence of the pupil in the school at the time would represent a serious threat to the safety of pupils or staff of the school, or any other person. Fair procedures will still be applied.

Fionraí Neamhfhoirmiúil nó Inaitheanta/ Informal or unacknowledged suspension

Exclusion of a pupil for part of the school day, as a sanction, or asking parents to keep a child from school, as a sanction, is a suspension. Any exclusion imposed by the school is a suspension, and will follow the Guidelines relating to suspension.

Uathfhionraí/ Automatic suspension

A Board of Management may decide, as part of the school's policy on sanctions, and following the consultation process with the Principal, parents, teachers and students, that particular named behaviours incur suspension as a sanction. However, a general decision to impose suspension for named behaviour does not remove the duty to follow due process and fair procedures in each case.

Úsáid mhíchuí fionraí/ Inappropriate use of suspension

Students should not usually be suspended for:

- poor academic performance
- poor attendance or lateness
- minor breaches of the code of behaviour.

However, any behaviour that is persistently disruptive to learning or potentially dangerous can be a serious matter. Behaviour must be examined in context to understand both the behaviour itself and the response or sanction that is most appropriate.

Fionraí ar bhonn atrátha/ Rolling suspension A student should not be suspended again shortly after they return to school unless:

- they engage in serious misbehaviour that warrants suspension and
- fair procedures are observed in full and
- the standard applied to judging the behaviour is the same as the standard applied to the behaviour of any other student.

Fionraí neamhiata/ Open-ended suspension Students should not be suspended for an indefinite period. Any such suspension would be regarded as a de-facto expulsion and would be treated as such under section 29 of the Education Act 1998.

Where a preliminary assessment of the facts confirms serious misbehaviour that could warrant suspension, the school will observe the following procedures:

- inform the pupil and their parents about the complaint
- give parents and pupil an opportunity to respond.

Nósanna Imeachta i leith fionnraí láithreach/ Procedures in relation to immediate suspension

Where an immediate suspension is considered by the Principal to be warranted for reasons of the safety of the pupil, other pupils, staff or others, a preliminary investigation will be conducted to establish the case for the imposition of the suspension. In the case of an immediate suspension, parents will be notified, and arrangements made with them for the pupil to be collected. The school must have regard to its duty of care for the pupil. In no circumstances will a pupil be sent home from school without first notifying parents.

The Board of Management acknowledges that the decision to impose either an immediate or informal suspension does not remove the duty to follow due process and fair procedures. In this regard and following a formal investigation, to be completed no later than two school days after the incident the Board will invite the pupil and his /her parents to a meeting to discuss :

- the circumstances surrounding the suspension
- Interventions to prevent a reoccurrence of such misconduct.
- The Board of Management may delegate responsibility for conducting this meeting to the Principal

8.3 Tréimhse Fionraí/ The period of suspension

A pupil will not be suspended for more than three days, except in exceptional circumstances where the Principal considers that a period of suspension longer than three days is needed in order to achieve a particular objective.

If a suspension longer than three days is being proposed by the Principal, the matter will be referred (except in exceptional circumstances) to the Board of Management for consideration and approval, giving the circumstances and the expected outcomes. Even in the case of exceptional circumstances the Principal cannot suspend for more than five days.

The Board of Management has placed a ceiling of ten days on any one period of suspension imposed by it. The Board will formally review any proposal to suspend a pupil, where the suspension would bring the number of days for which the pupil has been suspended in the current school year to twenty days or more. Any such suspension is subject to appeal under section 29 of the Education Act 1998.

Díbirt/ Expulsion

(Procedures outlined in the NEWB Guidelines pgs. 83- 86 will be followed.)

Definition: 'A student is expelled from a school when the Board of Management makes a decision to permanently exclude him or her from the school'.

Expulsion of a student is a very serious step, and one that will only be taken by the Board of Management of Gaelscoil Phortlaoise in extreme cases of unacceptable behaviour. The school will have taken significant steps to address the misbehaviour and to avoid expulsion of a student including, as appropriate:

- meeting with parents and the student to try to find ways of helping the student to change their behaviour
- making sure that the student understands the possible consequences of their behaviour, if it should persist

- ensuring that all other possible options have been tried
- seeking the assistance of support agencies (e.g. National Educational Psychological Service, Health Service Executive Community Services, the National Behavioural Support Service, Child and Adolescent Mental Health Services, National Council for Special Education).

A proposal to expel a student requires serious grounds such as that:

- the student's behaviour is a persistent cause of significant disruption to the learning of others or to the teaching process
- the student's continued presence in the school constitutes a real and significant threat to safety
- the student is responsible for serious damage to property.

In exceptional circumstances a pupil may be expelled for a first offence for example:

- a serious threat of violence against another student or member of staff
- actual violence or physical assault
- supplying illegal drugs to other students in the school
- sexual assault.

The following factors will be considered before proposing to expel a student

- Cur síos agus dáiríreacht an iompair/ The nature and seriousness of the behaviour
- Comhthéacs an drochiompair/ The context of the behaviour
- Éifeacht an drochiompair/ The impact of the behaviour
- Idirghabháil atá triailte go dtí seo/ The interventions tried to date

Nuair atá díbirt páiste á phlé. In a choinneartáinn réamhfhiosrúchán na bhfíricí go bhfuil drochiompair oldháirire ar siúl go bhféadfaí páiste a chur ar dhíbirt faoi, beidh na nósanna imeachta seo a leanas san áireamh.

When proposing to expel a student. Where a preliminary assessment of the facts confirms serious misbehaviour that could warrant expulsion, the procedural steps will include:

1. A detailed investigation carried out under the direction of the Principal.
2. A recommendation to the Board of Management by the Principal.
3. Consideration by the Board of Management of the Principal's recommendation; and the holding of a hearing.
4. Board of Management deliberations and actions following the hearing.
5. Consultations arranged by the Educational Welfare Officer.
6. Confirmation of the decision to expel.

Achomharc/Appeals

A parent may appeal a decision to expel to the Secretary General of the Department of Education and Skills (Education Act 1998 section 29). An appeal may also be brought by the National Educational Welfare Board on behalf of a student.

It is the responsibility of the Principal, in co-operation with the BOM, teaching staff and parents that the schools' code of behaviour and discipline is administered in a manner that is consistent and fair to all pupils.
